Description

This superb VICTORIAN SILVER GOBLET was made by the well-known London silversmith, H.J.Lias & Sons in 1873. Standing on a flat decorated base with rope-twist border, this superb Silver Goblet has a knobbed stem and engraved floral and foliate decoration to the bowl. There are two blank cartouches, and the interior of the bowl retains the original gilt coating. Standing at over 10" and weighing over 450gm, this fabulous Silver Goblet is in excellent condition despite being almost 150 years old. This stunning Silver Goblet is free from any added engravings or monograms and would look superb in any setting or would enhance any silver collection. NOTE: Dark marks on photos are shadows - there are no marks on the actual Goblet.
