Description

An attractive Victorian antique pine dresser and rack. The Victorian pine dresser has an open back top, with three fitted shelves, with metal hanging hooks. The antique Victorian pine dresser base has an arrangement of three drawers, over three blind panel cupboard doors, each with wooden knobs. The cupboard base opens to reveal a spacious, single shelved interior. We recommend securing the top rack to the wall, as the dresser top just sits on top. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Item Ref; M-2535 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 213cm / Width – 157cm / Depth – 56.5cm / Surface Height - 90cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and staining to the surface top (pictured). There are also some splits to the bottom shelf of the rack (pictured). There is a new plywood back to the dresser base. The Victorian pine dresser remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well. Overall, a rather good example.
