Description

A stunning and most unusual Edwardian circa 1900 18ct rose gold (tested) stacking harem ring set with old cut diamonds, Rubies, Emeralds and natural pearls. Set within the superb ring sits 5 fine natural and tested Rubies and Emeralds, 6 natural pearls and rose cut diamonds. The Stones measures 2mm each, while the natural pearls measure 3 - 2mm. The rose cut diamonds are of high quality, they are flawless to the naked eye. The Rubies and Emeralds are vibrant in colour in superb condition. Total diamond content is 0.40ct. The bands stretch across the width of 15-17mm across the finger. The bands are held together as per tradition for the harem. Each band is 1mm thick. The face of the ring where stones are set measure 16 x 11mm. It is narrowest at the back where the bands measure down to around 5mm. Ring size GB L - L 1/2 - the ring CANNOT be re-sized. The ring weighs 5 grams, this is a substantial piece. The ring is in superb condition for its age.
