Description

You don't often see these little miniature carriage timepieces with their original case and original key. This one has both and a fine example it is. The case has much more detail than the average and the leather covered outer case has the little latches to secure the protective lid. The clock has been thoroughly serviced and overhauled and we also striped the case down, polished and professionally lacquered. The dial is immaculate, and the hands are original too. A very small and great example for the collector or perhaps a special occasion or birthday! Height 8cms Width 5cms Depth 4.5cms

Internal Ref: Miniature Timepiece
