SoldItem Reference: SA87594*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A good gauge of English sterling silver was used to create this most attractive sterling silver napkin ring with a frilled edge top and beautiful engraved decoration. To the front there is a vacant cartouche which could be engraved for a presentation if desired and another smaller one at the back which has an old feint decorative monogram. The hallmark is clear for Birmingham 1895, together with the makers mark J W into two shields. Excellent condition, measuring 1" thick x 1 3/4" in diameter.
