Description

An extremely rare pair of folding scissors with hallmarked silver handles. These unusual and collectable examples are probably a campaign item, for use in the field. Campaign items were often ingeniously designed as space was at a premium. The silver case is actually the handles and via an integrated clasp, opens to reveal the steel scissors which fold down. A desirable and sought after collector's item, with a practical use. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £8.00 UK £16.00 Europe £22.00 Rest of the World Condition :- Very good. The scissors fold down pleasingly and have some age related scuff marks from use. The silver handles have some surface scuffs and close well. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable matching sets to body. Date :- London 1898. Maker :- Wright & Davies. Length :- 5.8 cms. (closed). 10 cms. (open). Width :- 2 cms. (scissors open). Case width :- 1.3 cms. Depth :- 0.8 cms.
