Description

An exceptional wedding and engagement ring set. The engagement ring features a breathtakingly white old mine cut diamond, graded by HRD Antwerp as F colour, VS2 clarity. The stone is set in an open four-claw V collet, designed to allow as much light to pass through this rare white stone as possible. A baguette cut diamond is set in each shoulder, with an eight-cut diamond set ribbon appearing to thread through the top of the ring. Because of its unusual profile the engagement ring comes with a later crafted wedding band which stacks neatly against it. Set with seventeen round brilliant cut diamonds in platinum. Accompanied by a Natural Diamond Grading Report from HRD Antwerp (#210000182315). Cut – Old mine cut with baguette cut and eight-cuts in the shoulders. The band is set with round brilliant cuts. Colour – F. The diamonds in the shoulders are G to H. The diamonds in the band are F to G. Clarity – VS2. The diamonds in the shoulders are VS1 to VS2. The diamonds in the band are VS1 to VS2. Carat – 1.08 in the centre, with a further approximate 0.20 carat in the shoulders. The total approximate diamond weight in the band is 0.17 carat. Circa – 1960. Size – Both r...
