Description

A very fine quality early 19th century burr walnut circular occasional table with 'Verona-Rosa' marble top supported on three moulded 'C' scroll legs edged with ormolu beading, on a tripartite cross-banded base and gilded bun feet. The legs joined at the centre with a triangular shelf also edged with ormolu beading. This table is constructed to a very high standard and has extremely pleasing shape to the legs. The pink marble top is original and unbroken. It also has beautiful colouring.
