Description

Beautiful vibrant Victorian sash window panel featuring a central rosette with a painted bird in foliage in golden tones. This window is in its original pitch pine frame which has been part stripped - the wood still in good condition underneath. The glass is also in really lovely condition, free from any cracks or breaks, and the leading is strong and stable. Please have a look at the photos to see it's great colours. The window frame measures 75cm by 72cm (excluding the wooden points at the top which are 7cm) The glass inside measures 56.5cm by 52cm Please don't hesitate to get in touch if I can provide you with any further information, or help with a quote for delivery.
