Description

A well presented 18th century antique oak gate leg table. The antique oak gate leg table has an oak plank top with a drop leaf to either side. The drop leaves are supported by the hinged gate legs and form a large oval shaped table top when extended. The table is raised on six square and turned legs with straight stretcher supports. The table also features a drawer to one end. A rather good example with good colour and patina throughout. Item Ref; M-2810 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 70cm / Width – 46cm / Width Extended - 137cm / Depth – 123cm .

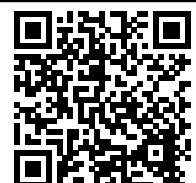

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and staining to the top (pictured). There is an honest patch repair to the table top where the hinge sits. The oak gate leg table remains structurally solid and sound. There is some evidence of old historic woodworm to the underside, however, this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. A good example with good colour throughout.
