Description

An unusual French mahogany roll top pot cupboard from the Victorian era. The brass pierced gallery sits on two brass edged drawers with a marble top. The roll top has mahogany and brass straps which roll opens to a marble interior which sits on another brass edged drawer. All the drawers and roll top retain the original brass knobs and open with ease. The panels to the sides are also edged in brass. Raised on tall beautifully turned legs having an attractively shaped under-tier. A very attractive item in excellent condition with minor marks/scuffs in line with age and use which gives this neat cabinet real character and charm. Internal Reference: SAI2590
