Description

A large and impressive early 20th century antique carved oak refectory style dining table. The carved oak refectory table has a solid panelled oak top, raised on decorative carved pillars. A particularly good, large refectory table. The top lifts off for ease of transport and movement. Item Ref; M-3620 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 76cm / Width – 240cm / Depth – 91.5cm / Legroom - 61cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good vintage condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and shrinkage to the surface top (pictured). There is also a small fill/patch repair to one of the corners (pictured). The carved oak refectory table remains structurally solid and sound. The top is removable for ease of transport. Please note, this is a particularly large and heavy piece of furniture so please double check the measurements before making a purchase. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
