Description

A stunning Victorian biscuit box dating to around 1870 and made by prestigious silversmith, William Hutton & Son. A good heavy piece of crystal was used to create this very smart box with a variety of intricate cuts revolving around a central large Floral motif on all four sides with garlands below meeting at the four corners. The silver plated mount has a very decorative raised border complimenting the finial to the top of the lid. There is a good hallmark for William Hutton below one side of the folding handle. A grand box is superb condition, measuring 6 1/2" x 4 1/2" x 8" tall to top of handle. Item ID: 32471 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
