Description

Circa 1880. A clean quality gilt and porcelain three-part clock set, comprising of a clock and two side urns, all mounted on embossed gilded bases and resting on velvet pads. The clock is surmounted by a wonderful urn capped with a pineapple finial, has a painted porcelain face and 4 stylish matching finials with stylish gilded beading and hand-painted panels. The clock rests on a rectangular base with foliate casting, a cartouche in the front over four turned cast feet. The pair of ovoid shaped and painted urns are surmounted by finials, over elegant stems.
