Description

A 19th century antique mahogany Pembroke table. The mahogany Pembroke table has a drop leaf to either side supported by two hinged arms. There is a single fitted drawer to one end and a dummy drawer to the other. The table is raised on turned, tapering legs with castors. Item Ref; M-2713 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 73cm / Width – 57.5cm / Width Extended – 108.5cm / Depth – 99cm . CONDITION REPORT: In well-worn antique condition throughout with various signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, and staining to the top (pictured). The castors are stiff and don't move freely. The mahogany Pembroke table remains structurally sound with some honest repairs in places. Some minor evidence of woodworm to the underside – this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Quite tired and worn in places but still functional. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
