Description

Free U.K. delivery Professionally Rewired and Pat tested Takes a standard B22 light bulb This is a splendid antique Victorian silver-plated Corinthian column table lamp now converted to electricity, Circa 1880 in date. This opulent antique table lamp features a kingly Corinthian Capital decorated with classical ornate foliage in the form of splendid acanthus leaves above a classical grooved column. It stands on a large and weighted stepped square base. Add an element of Classical elegance to your home with this exquisite antique silver-plated table lamp. Condition: In excellent working condition having been beautifully cleaned and rewired, please see photos for confirmation. Please note, the silver plate is original, it hasn't been re-plated! However it's in wonderful condition. Measurements Total height including bulb holder = 22 inches / 56 cm Base depth and width = 7 inches / 18 cm Corinthian capital It has been suggested that the foliage of the Greek Corinthian capital was based on the Acanthus spinosus, that of the Roman on the Acanthus mollis. The leaves are generally carved in two "ranks" or bands, like one leafy cup set within another. One of the mos...
