Description

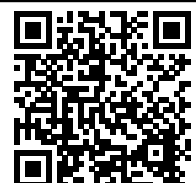

A stunning antique French clock set in gilt spelter. This was made in France, it dates from around the 1880-1900 period. It is of very fine quality and is beautifully sculpted, depicting a man controlling a horse on the main clock piece, and two armed Moorish figures either side. There is stunning detail, this is finished in gold and silver gilt. The clock face is beautiful blue Sevres style porcelain with matching porcelain plaques. The clock is missing a pendulum and winder, as such we cannot guarantee this will work. We are selling it as a decorative item, though someone with the correct know how could probably get it working. Externally it is in excellent condition, with just some minimal surface wear here and there. Clock: Width - 17 inches , 43 cm Depth - 7 inches , 18 cm Height - 19 inches , 49 cm Pair of figures: Width - 8 inches , 20 cm Depth - 6 inches , 15 cm Height - 18 inches , 46 cm
