Description

Victorian Mahogany Tilt-Top Table. A lovely carved tilt top mahogany table. We bring to you this fine example of a late Victorian solid Mahogany tilt top table believed to be made around C1880. This lovely table is complete with its original French polished finish throughout with a lightly faded original colour, lots of patina, charm and character. This tilt top table is made from all solid Mahogany featuring a beautifully turned base with lower finale going to 3 proportionate carved cabriole legs which stand on its original castors on brown porcelain wheels. This table has a small overall form yet is versatile from having a round top managing to comfortably seat 4 people and be used as a dining room or breakfast table. Already not taking up too much room because of this shape, the top tilts up-right for storage and is removable via a double brass table latch and 2 wing bolts with polished brass heads. The table is level and does not have any loose joints or wobbles. This table is in fantastic condition for its age as shown by the photographs, however being an antique item of this age there are aesthetic blemishes and scuffs here and there which we feel adds to its ...
