Description

Victorian Mahogany Tilt-Top Table. A lovely tilt top mahogany triform table. We bring to you one of the finest examples of an early Victorian solid Mahogany tilt-top triform base table believed to be made between 1850 - 1860. This lovely table has been cherished and is in fantastic original condition with the original French polished finish and lightly faded colour with lots of patina and charm. The Mahogany tabletop stands on its substantial tapering octagonal pillar to a large turned disk finishing to a Triform base on 3 finely turned cup feet complete with inset original castors on brown porcelain wheels. Unusually for a tilt top table and as a sign of the condition and quality of this table, there is little to no movement or play in the mechanism of the table as the table is being normally used, the solid mahogany top is flat with no bowing or twisting and the slam latch is working smoothly. This table has a small overall form yet is versatile from having a round top managing to accommodate up to 4 chairs and be used as a formal dining room or breakfast table. Already not taking up too much room because of this shape, the top tilts upright for storage and is remo...
