Description

Herbert George (b.1863) lived at Hindhead and Gomshall, Surrey, and studied at South Kensington, Herkomer's at Bushey and Newlyn, under Stanhope Forbes, and in St Ives under John Noble Barrow. Herbert George worked in the Lamorna valley in 1905, and exhibited 1906-36. This vibrant work depicts a cottage in an undulating Spring landscape. The work is very well executed with superb use of colour and wonderful depth of field. The work is housed in a wood and gilt glazed frame. The work itself remains in an excellent condition. The frame shows some light wear commensurate with age but remains attractive.
