Description

A mahogany side table with an attractive bow front dating from the early 19th Century. It has two small drawers each with brass plate handles and it stands on elegant tapering turned legs with its original brass castors. Nice small proportions, perfect as a side table or a small writing desk. It is in very good condition for its age. The drawers open well and are generally clean and tidy inside. The handles are not original but suit the piece well. There are some minor signs of age and use, some surface marks and light knocks around the legs and a few minor marks but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
