Description

Lovely pair of early 20th century Staffordshire Pottery Mantle cats with ginger and white coats, each sporting a green bow and with bright yellow eyes. Each cat stands 21cm tall, 14cm wide and 10cm deep and has free standing legs rather than modelled on a base or cushion. They are both in a good 'used' condition with no chips or cracks, just the gentle surface wear consistent with their age - please have a look at the photographs to see them both in detail. They're such a lovely pair with really sweet faces and would be a great addition to any home. Please get in touch if I can help or provide any further information.
