Description

A charming country oak side table dating from the late 18th / early 19th century. It is semi-circular in shape with an overhanging planked top and it stands on square chamfered legs. It is in good original condition with a nice rich patina. There are normal signs of age and use, some light knocks and surface marks and old ink stains but nothing detrimental. The legs have warped slightly over time but it is strong and sturdy and hasn't affected it structurally. Overall it displays very nicely and is a good honest table.
