Description

A good Regency rosewood tilt-top breakfast table. The beautifully figured rosewood top sits on a thick turned column and a triform base with turned feet and its original brass castors below. It is a good size as a centre table but would also comfortably seat four as a dining table. It is in very good condition and has a beautiful patina. It is strong and sturdy and rolls well on its castors. The top has been beautifully polished and any white marks in the photos are reflections. There are some signs of age and use around the base, some knocks and marks, minor splits and some repairs to chips but nothing untoward or detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
