Description

A large 19th century antique oak refectory table. The antique oak refectory table has a solid four plank top, raised on four pillar legs with straight stretcher supports. The table has lots of character and charm throughout and has been finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Item Ref; M-3653 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 79cm / Width – 199cm / Depth – 108cm . CONDITION REPORT: In well worn antique condition throughout with various signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and a split to the surface top (pictured), further marks to the legs and frame (pictured). There is evidence of extensive historic woodworm to the base, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique oak refectory table remains structurally solid and sound. Please note, this is a particularly large and heavy piece of furniture all is all one piece so please double check the measurements before making a purchase. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of t...
