Description

These incredible antique chandelier earrings are each formed of six separate pieces, which gives them lovely movement when they dangle from your ears. Each showcases a brilliant emerald green teardrop paste amid old-cut white paste faux diamonds set into French-style frames with a decorative leaf motif. The clear stones are foiled at the reverse, making them extra vivid and sparkly, while the green paste is fantastic - not just plain glass but containing natural-looking inclusions which really give them the appearance of genuine emeralds. The earrings are unmarked but test as sterling silver with nine-carat gold wires. In excellent antique condition, just one tiny clear paste is vacant. Size: 7 x 2cm, 7.3cm total drop. Weight: 13.7g.
