Description

An original military travelling campaign mirror dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. The frame is mahogany and it has a sliding chamfered mahogany cover to protect the glass while travelling. It also has metal corner pieces, typical of military design, to protect it from bumps. It has a loop at the top to enable it to be hung from a wall or it can also be used standing with its folding easel back. It is in good condition for its age and the glass is in good condition with a few minor age spots. It has been well used and there are a few minor chips and splits around the frame and an old repair but nothing detrimental or untoward. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £15
