Description

A stunning quality marquetry inlaid Sheraton Revival Carlton House Desk in the manner of Edwards & Roberts. The upper section with a raised galleried top with intricate pen-work detail with oak-lined lockable drawers and lift up serpentine-shaped lids, revealing a beautifully divided interior for stationery, inkwells and pens etc. The lower section with a mahogany top, cross banded in satinwood and with a fitted green gilt-tooled leather writing inset. The three rectangular oak lined frieze drawers with traditional brass swan neck handles, again crossbanding and painted detail. Supported on square tapering supports with brass castors - a Classical English Carlton House desk that was made to be freestanding in a library or drawing-room. English circa 1890. FREE DELIVERY - to mainland UK. We offer a 'Try before you buy' service so you know you will be 100% satisfied with your purchase.
