Description

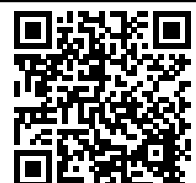

Circa 1900-1920 a pair of winged spelter cherubs holding a branch each with a light at the top. The original bases are approximately 17cm in diameter and the lamps measure 41cm in height. On the front are the words: AMOUR VAINQUEUR. Both figures are in good condition and held securely on their stand by a large screw fitting, there is a tiny bit of movement in one. The lamps were professionally rewired by the previous owner and fitted with an online switch and should have a PAT test before use. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for outside areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
