Description

Fine late 18th century Italian marble Pietra Dura framed plaque. Very nice subject of the bird on a rose bush and very intricate detail to the inlaid marble. The frame looks to me to be original and is of simulated tortoise shell with a brass inner beading. As can be seen in the photos there faint writing to the back of the piece with a date of 1781. This is a fine quality piece with a good subject matter and is in very good condition. No damage to the marble at all. SIZE; 8" by 6" CIRCA; Dated 1781
