Description

This is a wonderful English antique George III sterling silver 10 inch salver, by the world famous silversmith Paul Storr. It has clear hallmarks for London 1811 and the makers mark of Paul Storr. It is typical of his work with the raised gadrooned rim with anthemion on shells and with anthemion at intervals, on four fabulous foliate bracket feet. The salver is engraved with a crest and motto and the underside is later engraved Charlotte J. Parke from C. J. Parke, March 1893. The centre is engraved with a crest above a motto 'True and Fast' and I have researched this crest: The Crest of Parke. The crest as engraved upon this George III English Sterling Silver Footed Salver by Paul Storr hallmarked London 1811 is that of the family of Parke. It may be blazoned as follows: Crest: A stag's head couped sable holding in the mouth a key or. Motto: True and fast. The family of Parke originally hailed from the County of Cumberland in the northeast of England, later settling in the County of Dorset at Henbury House, Sturminster Marshall, near Wimborne. Given the evidence of the inscription found on the underside of the salver 'Charlotte J. Parke from C. J. Parke, Marc...
