Description

This rare English silver folding hunting cup still has its original leather covered pocket box with a blue silk lining. The cup is hallmarked for Birmingham and has a date mark m for 1911 -12. This interesting piece has an engraved monogram and presentation on 4th May 1912 on one side. The cup still works and is watertight but could possibly benefit from something stronger! It shows signs of careful use but is still in good condition with no significant marks or dents. The inside still retains its original gilt finish. English 1912
