Description

Stunning Victorian Scottish fern engraved water jug, dated 1887. This is as good a fern engraved piece of glass as you will ever see. The fern engraving is crisp and of fantastic detail. Nice shape handle. Star cut base. The jug is very clean and in very good condition. There is a small internal line at the top part of the handle where it joins the body but it is definitely not a crack. Price includes UK postage and packing costs. SIZE; 7 1/2" high. 5" diameter at the base. CIRCA; Dated 1887
