Description

This is an antique corner cabinet. An English flame mahogany and boxwood inlaid wall cupboard, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1760. Distinctive corner cupboard graced with fine figuring and colour. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks show fine grain interest and rich russet hues. Boxwood inlay provides an attractive contrast in a light biscuit colour. Striking, twin swan neck pediment finished with foliate scrolled ends. Adorned with a band of quality dentil moulding above a frieze apron. Large door dressed with an inset brass lined lock, set within a diamond inlay — key present. A trio of serpentine shelves dress the useful interior. This is an attractive antique corner cabinet, presenting a fine example of Georgian craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
