Description

1930s Record pocket watch for Herbert Wolf. The watch has a Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is the calibre 431 from the Record Watch Company. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The nickel case was made by the Dennison Watch Case Company, a prolific manufacturer who supplied various watch makers. The front and sides of the case are in good condition, there is some unevenness to the back. The watch glass is in good condition, just a chip to the underneath of the edge. The dial is signed by the original retailer of the watch, Herbert Wolf Ltd of London, Liverpool and Manchester. Herbert Wolf was a jeweller and diamond mounter with branches in London, Liverpool and Manchester. He was the grandson of Shriener Wolf, a 'curiosity dealer' and Matilda, a jeweller. Harriet Samuel was also from the same family and went on to become the jeweller H Samuel. The dial looks good to the naked eye, with original blued steel hands, subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute track. If viewed closely, there are a few hairline cracks around the perimeter but they are faint. The watch comes with a single chain, 3...
