Description

A rather attractive small 18th century carved oak coffer. The carved oak coffer has a hinged lid (possibly a later replacement) that opens to reveal a spacious interior. The coffer has decorative carved detail to the front and is raised on shaped sides. Of neat proportions. Item Ref; M-3195 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 59.5cm / Width – 107cm / Depth – 41.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and staining to the top, front and sides (pictured). The top may be a later replacement. There is evidence of old historic woodworm - this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. There are various honest repairs including repairs to the legs/sides and also to the top (pictured). Overall, a rather charming piece with lots of character. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
