Description

Antique Regency Gilt Bronze Mantel Clock With Chain Fusee Movement FB Adams. This lovely antique clock has a gilt bronze case with a lovely harp shaped top. The harp then has a wreath to the top and has shaped and patterned sides leading to the dial. Below the dial then has two swans supporting the case with a small shaped square section with a mount depicting a rabbit in an egg. The whole thing then sits on an oval base with a lovely patterned finish. The dial is then painted and set out in black Roman numerals with a thin ring to the outside marking the minutes. The dial then has a domed protective glass in a gilt and patterned bezel. The dial is then finished by two shaped hands. The movement is then wound from the back and ticking away as it should. It is a chain fusee pocket watch style movement with lovely engraving. The movement is then signed by the maker "F.B.Adams, St.John's Square, London". It measures approximately: - 11.25" / 28.5cm Tall. - 4.5" / 11.5cm Wide. - 3.5" / 9cm Deep.
