Description

An Edwardian dark green crocodile or alligator leather covered documents box with inset folding brass carrying handle. The box has an inner tray with compartments for pens, stamps etc and a deeper cavity for storage. The lid is inset with a cross cross ribbon for holding papers in place. The box is fitted with a Bramah London lock - being a Bramah lock it comes with its own personal bespoke key - the box self locks so the key must not be lost! In really lovely condition, virtually no signs of wear on the outside with a classy dark green lustrous colour crocodile or alligator leather. It comes with a family photo in keeping with the times, found in the box.
