Description

This is a large antique bow form settle. An English, elm and oak bench seat, dating to the Georgian period and later, circa 1750. Magnificent form, quality and scale afford this settle an impressive appearance. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in very good order. Elm stocks of 3cm (1.25") thickness show fine grain interest. Presenting deep caramel hues throughout beneath a wax polish finish. Superb bow form with concave bench seat. Appealing panelled back rest nestles beneath a canopy top. Striking wings with sinuous carved edges provide comfort from a warm fire. Panelled to rear, offering a 360-degree potential for central room placement. This is a superior and impressive antique bow form settle, a delightful seat or bench for the larger room. Graced with quality Georgian craftsmanship and antique stocks. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
