Description

This is a set of 6 antique buckle back chairs. An English, rosewood suite of dining seats, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Striking form and attractive colour distinguish this suite of chairs. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks show fine grain interest and deep caramel hues. Offering comfortable and supportive, deeply stuffed seating with traditionally webbed cushions. Superb buckle back with prominent upper rail. Gently rolled rails with serpentine curvature catch the eye. Distinctive lower rail accentuated with scroll motif. Stout, shield shape cushion upholstered with a delightful green foliate patterned textile. Trimmed beautifully with a quality forest green brocade trim. Carved knees adorned with reverse scroll detail. Raised upon sinuous cabriole legs with turned out toes, splayed square legs to rear. Some light marks to fabric commensurate with careful use. This is a delightful set of 6 antique buckle back chairs, offering fine colour and quality finish. Ready to enjoy, or simply recovered to taste. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 45cm (17.75") Max De...
