Description

A good example of an antique silver capstan style inkwell complete with a ceramic liner. It is a stylish and good quality piece with a wide base. It is hallmarked for Chester, 1912. The mark is slightly rubbed so I cannot distinguish the maker. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. There are signs of age and use, some faint surface marks, a few light scratches and minor dinks (one particularly on the bottom edge, see photo) but nothing major. The liner is a little loose where there has been some shrinkage inside the well but it isn't detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £5.
