Description

A solid sterling silver pin cushion, dating from the Edwardian era, in the shape of a pair of bellows. Hallmarked on the side for Birmingham 1906 with the maker's mark for Ridley Brothers & Merton. The marks are a little worn but still discernible. The bellows have the original blue cushion, slightly faded at the edges. One side is set with a semi-precious hardstone boss. The 'handles' have a hook for attaching to a chatelaine. One of the handles has been slightly bent out of shape. A lovely, fairly rare pin cushion for a collector. Dimensions: Length: 8cm Width: 4cm Height: 1.5cm Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
