Description

A lovely example of a Georgian patch box dating from the late 18th Century. It is a beautiful pink colour decorated with a pretty floral design on the top and sides. The interior and the base are white with a gilt metal frame. It is in very good condition for its age. There are no major damages to the exterior and the decoration is all in good condition. There are signs of age and use and some internal crazing but otherwise it displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £5
