Description

A fabulous Victorian Jewellery box dating to the late 19th century, around 1890 / 1890 with a gentle domed top with flush polished brass carrying handle. This one can be dated fairly accurate with the engraved brass plaque to the front "From Sidney to Daisy, June 6th 1900" Made from warm and highly decorative Walnut the box is in mint condition with a complete original interior having been superbly preserved for the last 110 years. The lid opens to reveal a fitted jewellery lined in silk and velvet. Down each side are ring holders and a central compartment for a pocket watch, perfect today for a wristwatch or bracelet. The interior of the lid is beautifully tufted in silk. The doors are fitted with thick bevelled glass with two drawers behind again lined with green silk. A real gem, in excellent condition having had all brass fittings professionally re-polished to gleam; and complete with working key, measuring 8 3/4" x 6" x 6 3/4" tall.
