Description

A 19th century antique oak circular tripod table. The tripod table has a circular shaped plank top raised on a turned pedestal with a tripod base. The tripod table would have originally had a tilt top or snap top but is now fixed in the down position. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Item Ref; M-3710 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 73.5cm / Width – 75cm / Depth – 75cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and mild staining to the top (pictured). There are some honest repairs to the tripod base and feet (pictured). The table remains structurally sound although the top is slightly wobbly. There is evidence of old historic woodworm in places - this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Overall, a charming country made antique oak circular tripod table. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .

Internal Ref: M-3710
