Description

An original hand coloured print dated 1731 of the South East prospect of Warwick. Samuel Buck (1696 – 17 August 1779) and his brother Nathaniel Buck (died 1759/1774) were English engravers and printmakers. They were the most important topographical artists of the 18th century, creating a record of over 500 ancient monuments, towns and cities. Well mounted in a gilt frame. 2 foxing marks.
