Description

19thc. mahogany library chair This 19thc. mahogany library chair was made circa 1820. Having the Gillow influenced reeded legs and fluted arm supports to the front and then the satinwood banded frame and armrest. We have just upholstered the cushions and seat base in fine leather hide before dyeing by hand then applying the time consuming and skilled antique finish. Imagine sitting back and relaxing in this stylish 19thc. library chair and the pleasure the ownership will give you as well as the many admiring glances it will get. No doubt there will be friends or family desperate to try it out! 66cms wide across armrests widest point 26ins 70cms deep 28ins 95cms high 37 1/2ins 45cms seat height 17 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
