Description

A Regency mahogany chamber writing table attributed to Gillow. Raised on fine turned legs that terminate in "Cope and Collins Patent" castors. The single frieze drawer is mahogany lined and retains its original turned wooden knobs and working brass lock. In addition to the rear of the right hand side there is a pen drawer that pulls out and hinges forward. The table has a one piece top and the whole is in exceptionally good and original condition, of dense mahogany and original waxed patina. 760mm high, 760mm wide and 500mm deep. English. Circa 1815.
