Description

A fabulous and unique Art Deco engagement ring. The old mine cut diamond in the centre is secured in a six claw coronet collet. It's an impressively bright and lively stone, but what really sets this ring off are the daring split shoulders. Set with eighteen (nine either side) eight cut diamonds in a wide and elongated "U," leading to a slender platinum shank. So striking. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report by IGR (#30309906). Cut – Old mine cut in the centre and eight-cuts in the shoulders. Colour – H in the centre, F to G in the shoulders. Clarity – The centre is SI2. The diamonds in the shoulders are VS2 to SI1. Carat – The centre is 0.79 carat, with a further approximate 0.16 carat in the shoulders. Circa – 1930. Size – M (UK) or 6 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can be sized up or down. Measurements – The centre diamond is approximately 5.3 x 5mm and sits 6.2mm from the finger. Metal – Platinum. Tested.
