Description

A 1920 Quality Silver Plated Punch Bowl with ladle, having lion face handles with rings through their mouths as handles. The Punch Bowl is well plated on a base metal of copper and is decorated with impressed and raised flower and leaf design. The Ladle is stamped A1 plate and is designed with a shell shaped scoop and is included. Both items belong together and have been cleaned throughout with silver polish. Condition is very good, with only a little thinning of plate in the bottom of the punch bowl due to movement of ladle when serving.
